

(Front, L-R) Bill Moseley (MHS Band Director), Gov. George C. Wallace, Mike Guthrie, Troy Criswell. (Back, L-R) Philip McEntee, Clay Nordan, Beverly Harper, Jerry McGaughy, Mary Ann Parker, Thomas Cannon, Debbie Vining, Jimmy Culp, Sharon Winslett, Karen Varden.

The Montevallo High School Band was invited to play at the opening and dedication ceremonies of the new Shelby County Airport on I-65 between Calera and Alabaster in the fall of 1966. Gov. Wallace flew in for the occasion and brought a photographer, who shot similar photos of the governor with several sections of the band. This was a trumpet and trombone group.

Photos from personal archive of Bill Moseley, Pensacola, FL (2015).

(Front, L-R) Sally Sears, Marie Goggins, Gov. George C. Wallace, Johnny Stewart, Bill Moseley (MHS Band Director).
(Back, L-R) Mary Johnston, Marilyn Winslett, Jeffrey Gray, Nora Hubbard, Joe Miller, Debbie Cunningham, Jeanetta Corbett. This was a trumpet and French horn group.

(L-R) Jennie Lucas, Bobby Ingram, Judy Nordan, Gov. George C. Wallace, Bill Moseley (MHS Band Director) Betty Jane Barclay, Margie Scott, Nancy Barclay, Bobbie Parker. This was a percussion group.

(L-R) Loy Miller, Carolyn Frost, Governor George C. Wallace, Mary Ellen Lewis, Debbie Pack, Joan Anthony (head majorette). This was the majorette group.