

Ed Givhan Leads In Baby Contest

Ed Givhan, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Givhan, continues to lead all others in the Baby Popularity Contest sponsored by the Montevallo Chapter of the Alabama College Alumnae Association.

Close competitors are: Rita Joyce Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Day; Wayne Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Davis; Laurie Ann Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hicks; Robert Edward Crowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crowe

The finals for the contest will be held in the form of a Baby Show at Palmer Hall on next Monday evening at 7:30. Elaborate plans are being made for the occasion at which W. J. Kennerly will be master of affairs.

Favors will be presented to all competing babies and special recognition made of the four leading ones in the contest. Pictures of the winners with their junior sponsors will be exhibited when the outcome of the contest is known. Votes will be allowed until the gavel sounds sometime during the performance on Monday evening.

Mothers are urged to have their babies present in the auditorium promptly by 7:30 on Monday evening.

The program for the Baby Contest will consist of the following numbers:

Master of Ceremonies – Mr. W. J. Kennerly.

Song – “Mighty ’Lak a Rose,” Miss Mary Stewart Howell.

Tap Dance Interpretations – Miss Virginia Napier.

Trio – “Rhythm in My Nursery Rhymes,” Misses Geraldine Camp, June Davis, and Marinelle Oliver.

Presentation of Babies by Junior Sponsors.
