

New Strand Theatre Opens Next Monday

Mr. Eddie Watson announces he is ready for the opening of the Strand Theatre on next Monday, following the complete rebuilding of the house which is more than double the capacity of the former place.

For the opening picture at the new place, he has scheduled the year's outstanding romantic comedy, with Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Young in "Red Salute."

The programs will begin at 6:40 and 8:35. There will be no increase in the price of admission.

Mr. Watson is glad to welcome his many friends and patrons to his new show place, which everyone will concede is the most attractive and up-to-date theatre in this section of Alabama. During the past week the building was inspected by a representative of the State Fire Marshal, and was given the stamp of approval. This means a guarantee to the public that all prescribed safety measures against fire have been carefully observed in the construction of the building. The projection room has been given special attention, and is so constructed that it is completely safe-guarded against all dangers to the patrons of the show.

The people of Montevallo and surrounding community are glad to have the announcement of the re-opening of the Strand. Mr. Watson has a series of bookings that will guarantee the finest kind of entertainment throughout the coming season.

Bama Skippers At Strand Saturday

TO MAKE DEBUT INTO THEATRE AT LOCAL HOUSE THIS WEEK

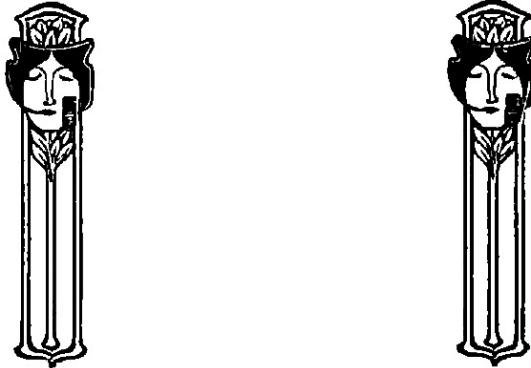

The Bama Skippers are booked as an added feature at the Strand Theatre on Saturday of this week. This stage appearance is the Bama Skippers' debut into the theatre, although they have done exhibition work in several towns in South Alabama. The band has taken particular care in arranging this week's program and is anxious to offer music that will appeal to everyone. In a series of appearances at the Strand the band will offer a soloist and novelty for each program, Miss Billie Hill of Saginaw being the guest for this Saturday.

The Bama Skippers are rapidly earning a reputation throughout the State of Alabama as a good organization and have played return engagements in all parts of the state with unfailing regularity. Their playing has won many friends, and the name of the orchestra is becoming well-known.

This orchestra has been in existence for three years, and now consists of eight instruments. Changes have been made due to three boys leaving for college, and replacements are made as needed. The boys who are away at school, Warren Brown, Julian Hardy and James Hardy, all say that their instruments have continued to serve them well, not only for amusement but financially as well.

The present band consists of eight musicians as follows: Eddie Mahaffery, 1st sax; Clifford Fulford, 2nd sax; Douglas Broyles, 3rd sax; Marcus Vincent, drums; Charles Mahaffey, 1st trumpet; Taylor Hardy, 2nd trumpet; John May, bass and Mrs. E.G. Hardy, piano.

The orchestra hopes that an interest can be created among the boys of the town and vicinity that will lead not only to financial gain but also individual training that will be of service later on.

We appreciate the patronage and the splendid cooperation of the faculty and
